

Diana Towers CARLETON
(nee DIANA MARJORIE TOWERS)

Diana Towers Carleton passed away peacefully in her home in Austin, Texas, surrounded by her family on April 7, 2016. She was 83 years old.

Diana, "Diney" is survived by her loving husband, John W. Carleton and by their son, Jeffrey L. Carleton, both of Austin. She is preceded in death by her brother, Phillip B. Towers of Toronto; her mother, Kathleen M. Towers of Toronto; her half-sister, Muriel Prieur of Calgary; and her father, Matthew C. Towers of Toronto.

Diana was born on September 17, 1932 in the Leaside neighbourhood of Toronto. After graduating from Leaside High School, she headed west to Calgary where she worked for a time at the Calgary Gas Company. She continued west to Vancouver, BC where she met her husband John in 1958. The two were married in San Francisco in 1961 and settled in the Reno, Nevada area. Their son Jeff was born in 1964. Diana pursued a course of study in Interior Design at the University of Nevada, and their home reflected her talents in this regard. She counted among her dear friends many musicians who formed the couple's social circle during John's tenure as orchestra leader at Harrah's Hotel in Reno.

If family and friends so desire, memorial tributes may be made directly to the Alzheimer's Association, www.alz.org.
