

Our FCA is run entirely by volunteers ... We need YOU!

Here are some possibilities . . . you are welcome to suggest more!

Facebook

- Monitoring our Facebook page and adding informative posts about end-of-life topics

Event Planning

- Planning refreshments for our annual meeting (always the last Saturday in February)
- Arranging volunteer appreciation and/or fundraising events

Finances and Investments

- Serving on our Finance / Investments Committee

Gathering Data for Funeral Home and Cemetery Surveys

- Obtaining price lists, in person or via email, for our annual Funeral Home Price Survey and our biennial Cemetery Survey. Funeral home price lists are gathered every January. Cemetery prices are obtained every other June (2020, 2022, etc.)

Office Help

- After being trained, responding by email or phone to contacts from members and nonmembers; preparing new member packets and member thank-you letters; filing. Familiarity with gmail required.

Outreach

- Telling family members, neighbors and friends about FCACTX, encouraging them to join and to invite an FCACTX presenter to speak to their house of worship, book club, neighborhood association, etc.
- Contacting senior living facilities, nursing homes, hospitals and hospices to let them know about our price surveys and our in-service training

Speakers Bureau: Presentations, Classes and Workshops

- After being trained, making presentations to help people make informed end-of-life choices and complete advance directives
- Conducting and/or co-facilitating classes on end-of-life topics

Translation

- Translating our materials into Spanish

Writing and Research

- Writing articles and/or book reviews for our newsletter, which is published three times a year
- Researching grant opportunities and/or writing grant proposals

To discuss an opportunity that appeals to you,
